One cold blistery night I heard something banging it got louder. It sounded like this Bang, Bang, Bang, I got the shivers when I was walking down the stairs. SNAP the door broke. I heard something coming threw the broken door. I looked threw the stairs bars. He has white little ball on the top of his hat. But soon he pulled off his mask. I gasped. Then he came over to me and stuffed me in bag. He laughed. Ha Ha Ha. It was Evil Santa.

He grabbed me and stuffed me in his bag. He got on the most Evilest dog. When he barked my ears just about fell off. It probably traveld around the hole world. I peeked out of the bag. It said Evil Santa on his badge. When the dog ran I felt I was like a plane. I looked up we were flying. We started to lower down. Evil Santa was tan and had a mole on his cheek. Then the dog landed in the North Pole of Evil. All of the Elves eyes were pitch red. Then the dog stopped. I heard a huge door open. Evil Santa took me strait out of the bag and tossed me in a room. I looked up holly cow there were millions of children. It was a dungen the only thing we could eat was crickets.

I met a guy named Issac we became friends. We had been looking at this vent it had an oponing. Evil Santa takes us out every day for a drop of water. One day when he was going to take us out Issac and I hid in a shadowy corner. He shut the door and I got on Issac's sholders. I got up and I pulled Issac up. We hit the End. We broke out we were free. Then we hit the highway a car drove it was coming we waved our hands. We got in the car and told them the location. I got home my mom asked were I had been. I said I was at my friends house. I secretly took my phone and dialed 7806 Santa Line and told him my only wish for Christmas was to free the children from Evil Santa's Dungen. I was so excited on Christmas morning because he sended me a note that said: saved all the children.
